VOLUME VIII

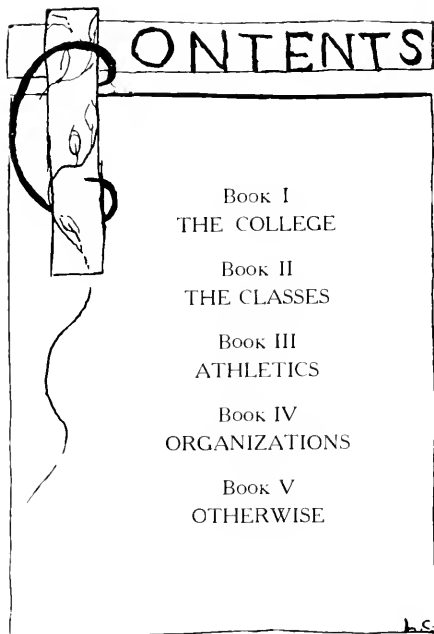

EDITED AND PUBLISHED BY THE
SENIOR CLASS OF ELON COLLEGE
ELON COLLEGE, N. C.

Homeward

Not all the enjoyments of life come with the immediate experiences. Often the greatest pleasures and most profound sensations are delayed until the original experiences are long past. It is with this idea in mind that we attempt to send out this, the eighth volume of the PHIPSICLI. Happy as has been our stay here, we feel that for many years to come we shall look back and feel with a deeper and more profound reverence the very heart-beat of the days we spent together under the gentle care of dear old Alma Mater. We hope that this volume may hold for all a wealth of precious memories, that when we go out and are separated by space, we shall still be bound together and to Alma Mater by the strong ties of friendship and devotion.

IN LOVING RECOGNITION OF HIS WONDERFUL SERVICE AND DEVOTION TO ELON, AND TO HUMANITY AT LARGE, THIS, THE 1922 PHIPSICLI, IS RESPECTFULLY
DEDICATED TO DR. WILLIAM WESLEY STALEY.

Words Appreciative of Dr. Staley

EV. WILLIAM WESLEY STALEY, to whom this volume of Phipps is gratefully and affectionately dedicated by the Class of '22, honors the college in accepting the dignity conferred in this act of recognition and appreciation.

For Dr. Staley has been a trustee of our Elon since the called session of the Southern Christian Convention in September, 1888, made provision for the college under whose auspices this annual is now yearly sent forth and in whose name many splendid things are being wrought out for the Kingdom of God. He was nonresident president of Elon for eleven fateful years, years of grim struggle with reaction in the church and a load of debt, from 1894 to 1905, never accepted a penny for his services, and during all that time he was the busy pastor of a growing congregation in Suffolk. And he has always led the way for giving in every financial drive. He was one of the original thousand-dollar men years ago when such givers were few and far between in the church, and during the recent standardization fund campaign, it was W. W. Staley who startled the brotherhood into the most unexampled achievement of giving in the church's history by proposing to give $5,000 if ten others should be found to do likewise, the result being that twenty-one followed in his train. And so the Class of '22 has honored itself in bestowing its highest favor upon this splendid friend and gracious benefactor.

The life history of Dr. Staley is an inspiration to all who have been privileged to know the obstacles over which he has climbed to greatness and an enduring place in the affections of a people. Cradled in an humble Christian home, orphaned at the tender age of five, granted his freedom by his stepfather at seventeen, this Gamaliel in scholarship in the Christian Church in this generation, this Barnabas in generosity among us, worked his way, first, through the high school of Rev. W. S. Long, D.D., then through Trinity College (paying his tuition, though as a ministerial student he was entitled to have it free), then to the University of Virginia, by splitting wood, working gardens, caring for live stock, acting as man-servant in private residences and janitor in public buildings, rising from college janitor to college president and filling both offices with a rare fidelity and whole-heartedness of service, coming out of his experiences not embittered or resentful, but rejoicing that hardship had been his lot, as witness these words of his, the words of a twentieth century Paul: "About the easiest task of my life was to work through college; and, if I may make one remark, it would be that the danger of schools is to make education too easy. The armor used by Roman soldiers in camp exercises was twice the weight of that which they used in battle. This made battle easy as compared with drill. It seems to me that college life ought to develop human powers by double strain so as to prepare for life's big task. Hothouse methods cannot make men of greatest endurance and usefulness. That is why so many men drop out suddenly in the prime of life. They cannot stand the strain of great public service."

After leaving the University of Virginia in 1878, Dr. Staley taught for three years in the Graham (N. C.) High School, meanwhile serving as pastoral assistant of New Providence, and pastor of Hanks' chapel, Mt. Zion, and Morrisville Christian churches, and was for two years county superintendent of schools for Alamance County, 1880-1882. In the latter year he was called to the pastorate of the Christian Church in Suffolk, Va., then in its infancy, with but 135 members and a salary of but $600 a year for its minister, without parsonage. For forty successive years this church has unanimously elected Dr. Staley its pastor, and what marvelous increase for the Kingdom has come during those years! The membership now exceeds 1,000 and the annual offerings have grown from $1,100, forty years ago, to more than $31,000 last year, and their pastor is not the pastor of his own flock merely, but the spiritual leader of a whole city.

Dr. Staley has never been a localized man. You cannot confine a man of his soul qualities and leadership ability to any parish. His labors in general enterprises are Herculean in their impressiveness. For many years president of the Eastern Virginia Conference, for thirty-four years president of the Southern Christian Convention, for twenty years a trustee of the Christian Publishing Association, always a member of the American Christian Convention since its reorganization in 1890, and chairman of the commission that brought about the union of the Northern and Southern branches of the Christian Church, member of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America since its organization, for one term its vice-president, and always serving on its important committees, ever giving literary addresses, baccalaureate sermons and special lectures before educational, literary, social, religious and commercial bodies—the marvel is how a man can be so ready and replete in such diverse situations, and ever an electrifying, inspirational force.

Dr. Staley has also written regularly and charmingly for the religious press. His weekly Suffolk Letter in the Christian Sun has had as much influence in establishing that paper's reputation as Poor Richard's sayings did in the case of Franklin's famous Almanac. His book, too, "The Minister," really the biography of his life's purpose and method, has taken high rank.

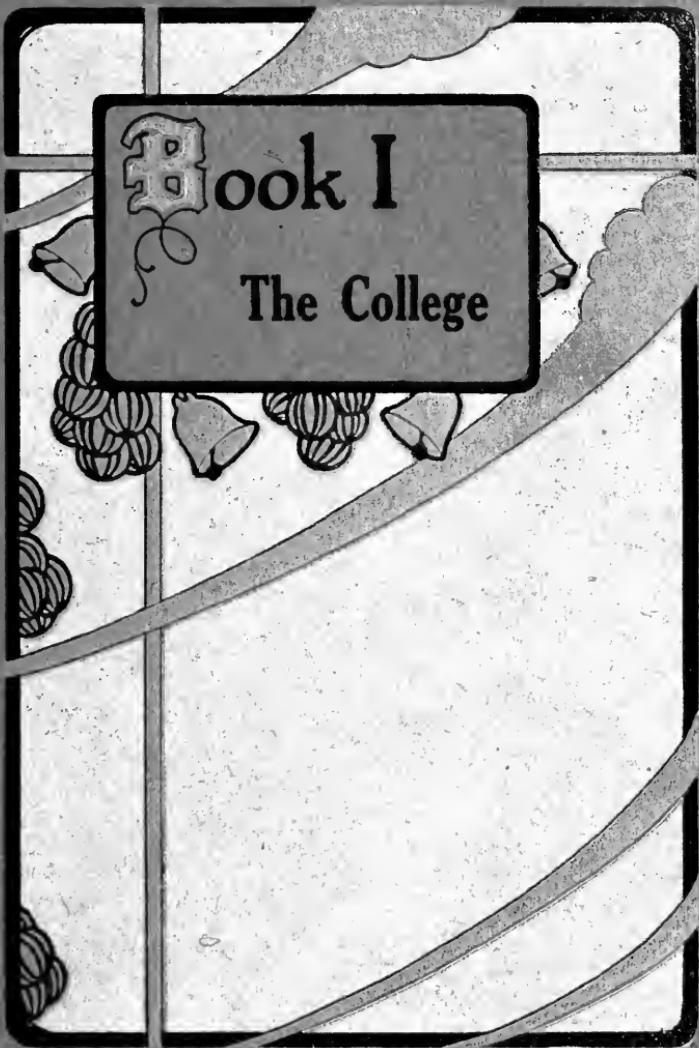

Dr. Staley holds the A.B. and M.A. degrees from Trinity, the D.D. from Union Christian College, and the LL.D. from Elon.

Dr. Staley was married to Miss Pattie Pearce of Franklin County, North Carolina, in 1879, a woman of rare devoutness, of Christian character and unalloyed devotion to her husband and the Church of Christ. She went to her heavenly reward in 1917. To their home were born three children, all of them graduates of Elon and all earnest workers in the Church of Christ—Mrs. T. F. Cheatham (Bessie), Miss Annie, who is her father's homemaker and helpmate in all good works, and Mrs. Ben T. Holden (Willie).

Affable ever in social graces, interested in men and women rather than measures, a humanitarian in the true sense of that fine sentiment, Dr. Staley has enriched the society in which he has mingled by his wholesome appreciation of wit and humor, particularly wit and humor in which he is the occasion of the merriment. Nothing delights his soul more than to "pull one" on himself, a grace that gives him a winsome charm in any social group.

Carrying the burden of great responsibilities, surrounded by men and women to whom his suggestions are wisdom and the bread of life, reaching out ever toward larger things, Dr. Staley has already labored beyond the allotted three-score and ten, but let us hope that this life of light and leadership may be spared for many years further of benign and helpful service.

THOMAS SHIELDS CHEEK

Ph.B.

MEBANE, NORTH CAROLINA

*"Lazy, slow and unconcerned,
He went to class and sometimes learned."*

Philologist, Varsity Baseball '20-'21; "E" Men's Club '21; College Band '17-'20-'21-'22; President College Band '21.

We are glad that Cheek has chosen this year to terminate his college career. He is a good fellow and has the reputation of having stood by Elon for quite awhile, something under ten years. Baseball has been his hobby in the field of athletics during his college career. He does not let marks and grades disturb his equanimity, for come what may, he goes serenely on.

MARGARETE CHRISTINE CORBITT

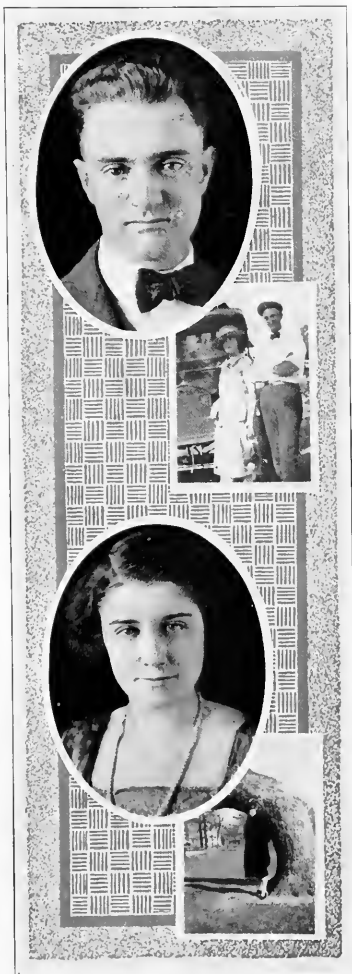

B.Mus.

SUNBURY, NORTH CAROLINA

"Be not afraid of enthusiasm, you need it; you can do nothing effectually without it."

Psiphelian, Delta Upsilon Kappa, Class Vice-President '19; Marshal Freshman-Sophomore Debate '19; Glee Club '19-'20; Cantata '19-'20-'21; Class Secretary '20; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21; Head Proctor '21; Certificate in Piano '21; Treasurer Ophelia Dramatic Club '21; Ophelia Dramatic Play '21; Y. W. Delegate to Guilford '21; Football Sponsor '22; Social Editor of Phipsicli '22; Undergraduate Representative Y. W. C. A. '22; Draftswoman of Class W-1 '22; Music Lovers' Club '22; Diploma in Piano '22; Latinum Marshal '22.

Take Corbitt's "pep" away and you will have no Corbitt. Her enthusiasm fairly bubbles over, whether on the sidelines or as an active participant in any event. Can't you see her even now, leading the yell—"Two-two-twenty-two?" She possesses fine dramatic ability; consequently she has starred in a number of the college plays. Corbitt's loyalty to her friends, her class and her college is true as steel. Here's to you, Corbitt—a good old sport.

"The sweet remembrance of the just Shall flourish when he sleeps in dust."

Cho; Cho Entertainment '20-'21; Cho Commencement Representative '21; Sunday School Class Secretary '19; Treasurer Ministerial Association '21; Football Squad '20-'21-'22; Class Treasurer '22; President Ministerial Association '22.

Clem expects to use his oratorical ability as a sky-pilot. He is not afraid of work and with his perseverance he must succeed. During his college days he has served in different capacities, anywhere from preaching a sermon to riding a bucking mule. We shall remember him as "chief" for his ability to keep the peace. "Now how about that?" Success to you, old man! You deserve it.

ELIZABETH FLORINE FARMER

Ph.B.

NEWS FERRY, VIRGINIA

"Rich man, poor man, beggar man, thief, Doctor, lawyer, Indian chief."

Esophelian; Delta Upsilon Kappa; Y. W. C. A.; Basketball Sponsor '20; Cantata '20-'21-'22; Glee Club '20-'21; Head Proctor '22; Chapel Monitor '22.

We give the above quotation because the fate of Florine's numerous admirers puzzles us, and her admirers too, at the same time. She is one of those happy-go-lucky, generous girls. Florine came to us in her senior year from '23. It takes a mighty fine spirited girl to transfer her loyalty as she has done. Florine, old '22 will see to it that you will never regret it.

Senior Class

LORA FOUST

GRAHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

"Where woman is held in honor, there the gods are well pleased."

Psophelian; Summerbell Scholarship '20; Student Council '21; President Ophelia Dramatic Club '22; Chapel Monitor '22; Diploma in Physical Culture '22; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '22.

Lora is a conscientious girl to whom a job is a job to be done well, whether it be for society, class or friend. One can readily see that she is a diligent student by the four years of Math. she has mastered. We predict for her a bright and successful future.

CHARLES PRESSLEY FARMER

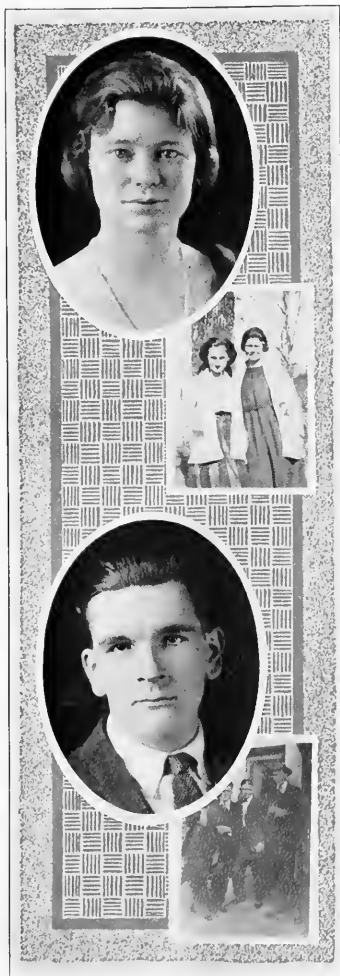

Ph.B.

NEWS FERRY, VIRGINIA

"Coolness and absence of heat and haste indicate fine qualities."

Chio; Y. M. C. A.; Student Senate '21; Marshal Chio Entertainment '20; Class Basketball '19-'20-'22; Class Baseball '19-'20; Varsity Basketball '20; Class Track Team '19-'20.

"Agricola" received a warm welcome when he entered the Class of '22 at the opening of the session of '21-'22. This fellow is quiet but aggressive. Absolutely he is no ladies' man. The few fair ones who have impressed him sufficiently for him to call once or twice considered themselves especially favored by the gods in their apportionment of charms, for he is an unimpressible fellow toward the ladies. He has proved himself a worthy fellow in all college activities.

Senior Class

BESSIE LOUISE HOLMES

A.B.

GRAHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

"The purest treasure mortal times afford is a spotless reputation."

Psiphelian; Delegate to Christian Endeavor Convention '19; Christian Endeavor Secretary '20; Student Council '21; Class Secretary '21; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21-'22; Delegate to Blue Ridge '21; Marshal Psiphelian Entertainment '21; President Student Council '22; Psiphelian Entertainment '22; Class Poet '22; Chapel Monitor '22; Diploma in Physical Culture '22; Ophelia Dramatic Club.

Bessie is quiet and modest, but one that we can depend on for any kind of work to be done for the class, especially along the line of poetry. Her many honors are evidences of her ability along many lines. She has proved an able member of student council and if she makes as good a teacher as president of the council we are sure she will be a success.

OSCAR BANKS GARMON

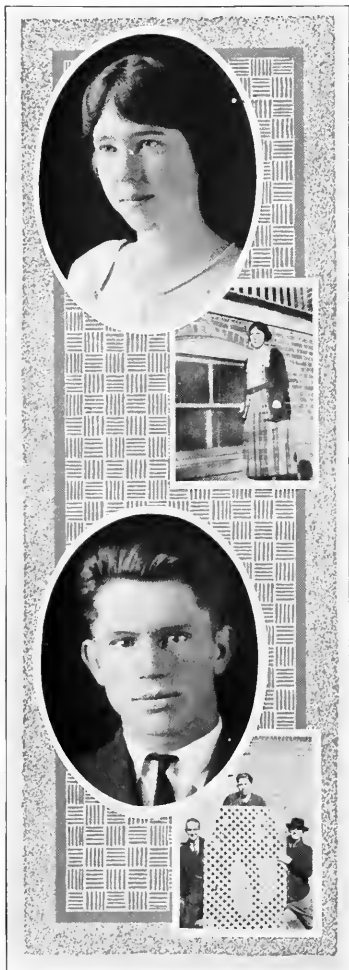

A.B.

CONCORD, NORTH CAROLINA

"A laugh is worth a hundred shillings in any market."

Philologist; Sigma Phi Beta; Assistant Cheer Leader '19-'20; Vice-President of Class '21; Student Senate '21-'22; Football Team '22; College Cheer Leader '22; "E" Men's Club; Class Basketball '21-'22; Class Baseball '22.

"Concord, Route 6, ladies!" is a familiar expression to all sojourners on the Elon campus. A special kind of laugh, one peculiar to "Country" alone, accompanies this statement. Honestly, though, could you find a more likeable fellow anywhere? This is why people like "Country." He knows how to be a friend; he possesses an individual, spontaneous humor that is simply refreshing. "Country" is planning to be a physician. Someone has said that, in that capacity, he will be another "Red Pepper Burns." "Someone" may be altogether right.

Senior Class

WATSON McIVER GARRISON

A.B.

BURLINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

*"A true friend is a valuable asset,
But a lady friend involves a shaky proposition."*

Philologist; Kappa Psi Nu; Marshal Junior-Senior Debate '21; President Junior-Senior Debate '21; Marshal Philologist Entertainment '21; Church Usher '21; Philologist Entertainment '22; Class President '22.

Watson is a jolly good fellow, whose broad smile has spread cheer upon our campus for four years. In loyalty to Class and friends he is surpassed by none. He is small in stature but large in the esteem of all who know him. Watson is a good student, a splendid pal and a successful class president.

MAGGIE WATERBURY IRBY

A.B.

ENFIELD, NORTH CAROLINA

"The fruit derived from labor is the sweetest pleasure."

Psychellian; Y. W. C. A.; Glee Club '20; Chapel Monitor '22; Psychellian Entertainment '22.

"Mag" has an abundant supply of curiosity and uses it to good advantage in exploring subject matter. One readily concludes her favorite study after being around her and hearing her say: "I am not studying you, I've got to study my history," and also, we may judge by the 9's that she makes.

Senior Class

IRA OTIS HAUSER
A.B.

SHOALS, NORTH CAROLINA

*"In every deed he has a heart to resolve,
A head to understand and a hand to execute."*

Philologist; Kappa Psi Nu; Class Critic '19; Student Senate '19; Class Treasurer '20; Sunday School Class President '19-'20; Philologist Entertainment '20; Philologist Commencement Orator '21; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '21; Maroon and Gold '21; Cabinet Religious Activities Organization '22; Editor-in-Chief Phipsieli '22.

Hauser is an excellent student, a gentleman, and a man who never says no to a friend's request. He is an earnest, hard worker, though always optimistic and happy, and while he is known as "the crookedest man on the campus," this applies to his physical stature only, for Hauser is a man of justice and principle who always stands for the right. We have no cause to doubt the future of a man like this.

MAUDE ELIZABETH KENDRICK
A.B.

FALLSTON, NORTH CAROLINA

"Grace is to the body what good sense is to the mind."

Psiphelian; Beta Omicron Beta; Ophelia Dramatic Play '21; Certificate in Chemistry '22; Diploma in Physical Culture '22; Vice-President Y. W. C. A. '21; Psiphelian Commencement Essayist '21; Delegate to Y. W. State Convention '20; Psiphelian Entertainment '20-'21-'22; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '22; Secretary Student Council '22; Phipsieli Staff '22.

If, in west dormitory, one hears someone skipping down the corridor to the tune of "Ain't We Got Fun," or some such song, immediately the conclusion is reached that that is "Ken." She has played some very graceful parts in plays and the May Day exercises. "Ken" is also noted for having the best disposition in the class. Besides all this she is a good student.

Senior Class

EULA MAE MASSEY

B.Mus.

YOUNGSVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life."

Psiphelian; Maroon and Gold Reporter '20; Certificate in Voice '21; Psiphelian Entertainment '20; Class Historian '21; Marshal Junior-Senior Debate '21; Chapel Monitor '22; College Choir '19-'20-'21-'22; Marshal Lyceum Course '22; Music Lovers' Club '22; Glee Club '20-'21.

Eula Mae is always singing, whether it be from habit or happiness, we do not know. Twenty-Two has been represented in all college activities, Eula Mae giving her support to the church choir since her first arrival at Elon. And she is another one of our class that has a talent for falling in and out of love. "Music has power to charm as well as to console."

MARTIN FREDERICK HAYES

A.B.

NORLINA, NORTH CAROLINA

*"Things are going to happen—why worry?
Everything comes to him who waits—why hurry?"*

Glee; Glee Commencement Marshal '20; Glee Entertainment '21; Track Team '20-'21; College Band '21-'22; Student Senate '22.

"Norlina" is a quiet, easy sort of fellow who has shared the joys and sorrows of our class for four years. He is a loyal classmate and has always supported Twenty-Two in all her undertakings. While other boys engage in athletics or entertain the fairer sex, he smokes his pipe, and acts as if to say "Things less troublesome were made for me."

Senior Class

MARY MARGARET MILLER

A.B.

LURAY, VIRGINIA

*"If ever you're in trouble,"
If ever you're in doubt,
Just take it all to Mary,
She can help you out."*

Now, here's one of those loyal members of old '22 you've heard about; here's one who can entertain, with equal ease, from a faculty member to a freshman. Here's one with a heart and head of gold and all the qualities that blend to make our true modern girl. Thus we say, "Oh, what a pal is Mary!" Mary is not selfish, no—because we know what she means when she says, "Yes, I enjoy being all by my 'Self.'"

MARSHALL WARD HOOK

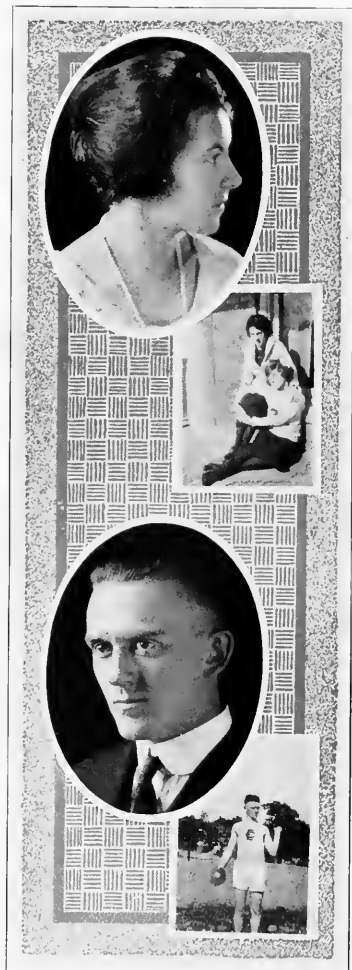

A.B.

GREENVILLE, NEW YORK

*"Of every noble work the silent part is best,
Of all expression, that which cannot be expressed."*

Philologist; Kappa Psi Nu; Varsity Track Team '16; Vice-President Class '17; Philologist Entertainment '16-'22; Captain Class Track Team '17; Chapel Monitor '22; "E" Men's Club.

Although "M. W." just entered our class for our last year, he is no stranger at Elon, the war having broken into his college career. He is a quiet, congenial sort of fellow, and has shown us that actions can speak louder than words, for we have found him "Johnny-on-the-spot" when there is anything to be done. We are glad he came to Twenty-Two. He is a friend on whom you may depend. His athletic interest centers in track.

Senior Class

ELBY STERLING JOHNSON

A.B.

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

"This is a man."

Philologist; Sigma Phi Beta; Philologist Commencement Marshal '19; Philologist Entertainment '20; Varsity Football '20-'21-'22; Varsity Baseball '18-'19-'20-'21; Varsity Track '19-'20-'21; "E" Men's Club '19-'20-'21-'22; Captain Football '22; Captain Basketball '19; President "E" Men's Club '21; Gymnasium Director '22; Student Senate '20; Alumni Scholarship '21; Class President '21; President Student Senate '22.

Where one thinks of the spirit of the Class of '22 he generally thinks of "Johnny" and all he stands for. Here is an athlete who has won athletic honors for his class and college; here is a fellow who is the embodiment of good, clean sportsmanship; consequently, we have here a man who has the respect and admiration of every fellow-student. He is just "Johnny" to everyone on every occasion—a plain, sincere fellow, standing for the best in young manhood.

DELORIS HOLT MORROW

A.B.

BURLINGTON, NORTH CAROLINA

*"Quiet, reserved, dependent and demure,
A friend of whom you are always sure."*

Psiphelian; Delta Upsilon Kappa; Delegate to Y. W. Conference Blue Ridge '19-'21; Marshal Psiphelian Entertainment '20; Certificate Domestic Science '20; Diploma Domestic Science '21; Vice-President Student Council '22; Y. W. U. A. Cabinet '22; Vice-President Class '22; Religious Activities organization Cabinet '22; Chapel Monitor '22.

We may as well put it in plain "sidewalk English," Deloris is a good cook. From presiding over the punch bowl at a formal reception to planning a menu for camp suppers, Deloris is back of it all. Even though she is not a chatty, talkative girl, she is true blue just the same.

SOUTH CREEK, NORTH CAROLINA

*"Some men grow mad by studying, much to know.
But who grows mad by studying good to know?"*

Philologist; President Eastern Carolina Club '21;
Glee Club '21; College Choir '21-'22; College Quartet
'22; Y. M. C. A. Musical Director '22; Senior Debater '22; Certificate in Voice '22.

Messick, coming to the class in our junior year, has made a valuable addition to Twenty-two. He is a conscientious fellow and a hard worker. His musical voice and handsome appearance are hobbies with him. He may use the former as an evangelistic singer, but the latter, who knows? Preaching, teaching and evangelistic singing loom up before him in his contemplation of a life work. We predict success for him in whichever he chooses.

MARY BESS NICHOLSON

A.B.

MEBANE, NORTH CAROLINA

"The king-becoming graces—devotion, patience, courage, fortitude."

Psalmist; Marshal Junior-Senior Debate '22; Secretary Christian Endeavor '22; Chapel Monitor '22.

When Bess had anything to do she always did it well, especially in looking after the little things that others might forget. Our first and last memories of Bess are of her waiting at the door for the mail man. She stands the best chance of anyone in our class of one day being postmaster-general, due to her excellent experience in distributing the mail to the young ladies of West Dormitory. Congratulations, Bess! for "males" are hard to handle.

Senior Class

SULA MYRTLE PATTERSON
A.B.

FRANKLINVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Every smile, so merry, drives care away."

Psiphelian; Class Secretary '19; Class Historian '20; Secretary Junior-Senior Debate '21; Marshal Psiphelian Entertainment '21; Student Council '21; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '22; Diploma in Physical Culture '22; Psiphelian Entertainment '22; Chapel Monitor '22; Delivery of Mantle Oration '22; Ophelia Dramatic Club.

No matter how dignified, how serious the occasion, Sula is bound to laugh before it is over. She generally causes a smile to spread over the face of her neighbors, too. Such jollity is a talent, for it lightens many a heavy occasion. "Pat" is her favorite nickname, here of late especially. She is very studious and a good Math. student.

DAVID MILLER
A.B.

BILTMORE, NORTH CAROLINA

*"He holds no parley with unmanly fears;
Where duty bids, he confidently steers."*

Philologist; Sigma Phi Beta; Philologist Commencement Marshal '19; Philologist Entertainment '20; Secretary Student Senate '21; Business Manager Maroon and Gold '22; Assistant Business Manager Phippsicli '22; Chapel Monitor '22; Division Leader Y. M. C. A. '22.

Yes, "Dave" says what he thinks and thinks what he says. Shams are an abomination to him. He believes in being just himself in his original way. To see him walk across the campus you might think he lacked energy, but appearances are sometimes deceptive, for he is a good worker. His athletic activity has been confined to class gymnasium. Well, that's all right, he was not built for an athlete.

Senior Class

MARY MARJORIE PERRY

B.Mus.

SILER CITY, NORTH CAROLINA

"I opened the doors of my heart, and behold there was music within and a song."

Psibelian; Y. W. C. A. Delegate to Blue Ridge '20; Delegate to Christian Endeavor Convention '20; Psibelian Entertainment '21-'22; College Choir '20-'21-'22; Glee Club '20-'21; Marshal Junior-Senior Debate '21; Musical Concert Marshal '21-'22; Cantata '20-'21-'22.

Marjorie is known on the campus for her strong and charming voice. She holds a place in the college choir and helps in stunts and other college activities by her solos. Her large brown eyes, as well as her voice, add to her attractiveness.

STUART RHODES MOFFITT

B.S.

ASHEBORO, NORTH CAROLINA

"Enjoy the present day, trusting very little to the morrow."

Philologist; Sigma Phi Beta; College Cheer Leader '19-'20; Class Baseball '19-'20; President of Class '20; President Freshman-Sophomore Debate '20; "E" Men's Club; German Club '21 (U. N. C.).

Rhodes plays his part on the stage of life as the leading man in roles demanding a gentleman of fair attainments. No social affair, either at Elon or elsewhere, seems to be complete without his presence. Devotees of light opera may look forward to his debut in Italian roles with great expectations. The fair maid who wins his undivided attention is indeed in a position to feel flattered.

Senior Class

WALTER EDMUND MOON

A.B.

LAKE MONT, NEW YORK

"The rising Moon has hid the stars."

Phi; Kappa Psi No; Track Team '19-'20; Phi Commencement Marshal '19-'20; Phi Entertainment '20-'21-'22; President Religious Activities' organization '22; Maroon and Gold Staff '20; Phippsicli Staff '22.

Moon is the class' right-hand man when it comes to general utility man. He is famous for his excellent taste in decorating for any kind of a gala occasion. He plays the piano in the class and college orchestras, and can arrange fine menus for banquets, parties or socials. Moon is good in anything he undertakes. The college will miss him very much.

SUSIE VANDYNE PERRY

A.B.

SILER CITY, NORTH CAROLINA

"Most precious treasures often come wrapped in smallest packages."

Psiphelian; Secretary County Club; Psiphelian Entertainment '21; Glee Club '20-'21; Marshal Psiphelian Entertainment '20; Chapel Monitor '22.

"Boodie" is one among the least in size of the class, but by no means least in many ways. She is very industrious and delights in the household arts. Take note, young man. She has proved a good athlete, both in basketball and gymnasium, and it is her heart's desire to enter a game and—win.

Senior Class

SHEPPARD ROGER MURRAY

A.B.

APEX, NORTH CAROLINA

*"Woman is man's bread of life.
I'm getting hungry."*

Philologist; Philologist Entertainment '22.

Murray comes to us from Apex, but often makes business (?) trips to Raleigh. To hear him talk after his return makes you wonder if he is not acquainted with endearing love scenes. But after all, while Murray has never laid much stress on college activities except society and class work, he has made no failure in either of these. We predict for him a noble career and wish for him every success in his teaching profession.

NANNIE D. REITZEL

Ph.B.

ELON COLLEGE, NORTH CAROLINA

"Woman is most perfect when most womanly."

Nannie D. is one of our two day-students. That makes no difference, however, in her relation to her class. She has proved herself so useful on a number of occasions, and so loyal to '22, that she is one of the best we have. Yes, she is quiet at times, but we have learned so well to know and appreciate her fine qualities. She has contributed her part in making the class what it is.

Senior Class

NATHANIEL GROSS NEWMAN, JR.

A.B.

ELON COLLEGE, NORTH CAROLINA

*"A merry heart goes all the day,
Your sad tires in a mile—a."*

Chio; Sigma Phi Beta; Chio Commencement Marshal '21; Chief Marshal Freshman-Sophomore Debate '20; Varsity Track '19; Class Track '19-'20-'21; Mantle Orator '21; 'E' Men's Club '20-'21-'22; Church Usher '19-'20-'21; Varsity Basketball '21; Class Basketball '19-'20-'21; Varsity Tennis '20-'21-'22; Captain Tennis Team '21 Secretary Class '22; Secretary-Treasurer Letter Men's Club '22; Secretary-Treasurer N. C. Intercollegiate Tennis Association '21-'22; Chio Entertainment '20-'21-'22.

If one is hailed with a "hello there" as he crosses the campus, he may as well hail back "Hello N. G.," without turning to see who greets him, for it's sure to be N. G. He's a jolly good fellow. N. G.'s philosophy teaches him to say the right thing at the right time on class. Witty, happy all the time—serious too—a great favorite with everyone—can it be that he will turn dentist? That will be the final test of a host of friendships. But they will stick to this fine youngster through "pain and suffering."

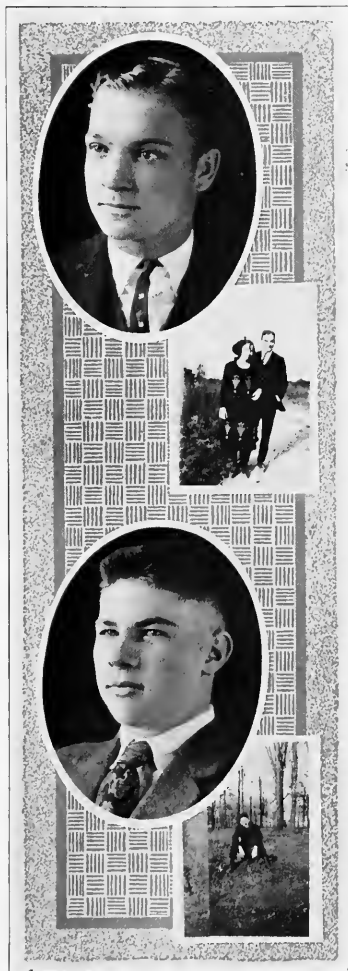

HENRY NEFF PEEL

A.B.

GASPORT, NEW YORK

*"The readiness of doing doth express
No other but the doer's willingness."*

"Zebo" is a man who needs no introduction to his schoolmates, for his individual characteristics are outstanding. He is a hard worker, and while he is neither a musician nor a ladies' man, he does not object to singing in duets with "Pat" in our class stunts. Great possibilities lie dormant in "Zebo." We trust that nature will assist in bringing them out.

Senior Class

RALPH SQUIRE RAINEY
A.B.

GORDONSVILLE, VIRGINIA

"Wit and humor belong to genius alone."

Clio; Kappa Psi Nu; Varsity Track '15-'21; Clio Entertainment '13-'14-'15-'21-'22; Class Debater '22; Intercollegiate Debating Team '22; Clio Commencement; Orator's Medal '21; "E" Men's Club '21-'22; Manager Young Men's Club '21-'22; Phippsicli Staff '22; Editor-in-Chief Maroon and Gold '22.

We defy Mr. Socrates, of ancient times, to think he is superior to our "Socrates" in either wit or wisdom. As soon as "Socrates" crosses one's line of vision a smile begins to spread across the face in memory of some wise remark he has expounded. Just you give "Socrates" something to do and it will be done a little better than anyone else would do it. The Maroon and Gold has become an excellent paper under his editorship. Read his editorials and you will become very, very wise yourself. He is a journalist, orator and humorist of local fame—and married.

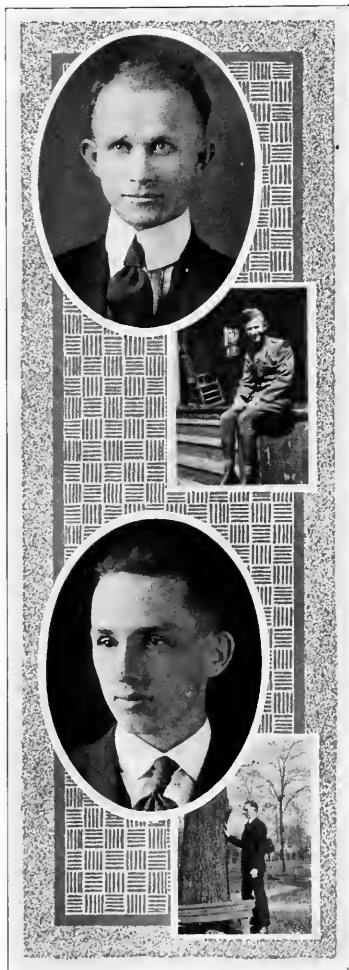

HERTFORD GARDNER SELF
A.B.

SILER CITY, NORTH CAROLINA

"It is our actual work which determines our values."

Philologist; Kappa Psi Nu; Sunday School Class President '18-'20-'21; Philologist Entertainment '19-'22; Philologist Orator's Medal '20; Class Debater '21; Peace Contest Representative '21; Maroon and Gold Staff '21; Philologist Commencement Representative's Medal '21; Business Manager Phippsicli '22; Intercollegiate Debating Team '22.

Here is one of the best students and most consistent workers in the college. He works unobtrusively, and his college mates are often ignorant of the amount of good work he does. He is known as one of the few real orators in college. Everyone grants him the laurels in this field. Hertford is a young man of sterling character and high ideals. His ability to make good is assured.

EUNICE CLAIRE RICH

A.B.

GRAHAM, NORTH CAROLINA

"She is the only poor little 'Rich' girl that doesn't mind meeting her 'Bills.'"

Psi-Phi; Beta Omicron Beta; Psi-Phi Essayist's Medal '19; Class Debater '20; Vice-President Ophelia Dramatic Club '20; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21; Vice-President Christian Endeavor '21; Psi-Phi Entertainment '21; Secretary of College Sunday School '21; Choral Society '19-'20-'21-'22; Ophelia Dramatic Club '20-'21-'22; Certificate in Expression '22; Diploma in Physical Culture '22.

Take a pair of blue eyes, a head of golden curly hair—bobbed, of course, a very studious little lady—yes, fashions, too, that's Eunice. Seriously speaking, Eunice possesses remarkable dramatic ability, and is one of our best readers. She has contributed much to the dramatic ability of our class. Now, here's the question: Will she use this ability behind the footlights in America or in assisting "Bill" in pagan lands?

JOHN JOSEPH SIMIELE

A.B.

NORFOLK, VIRGINIA

*"Do not, for one repulse, forego the purpose
That you resolved to effect."*

Phi; Sigma Phi Beta; Varsity Track '19; Class Track '19; Glee Club '19-'20-'21; College Orchestra '19-'20-'21-'22; Chief Marshal Junior-Senior Debate '21; President Virginia Club '21; Treasurer Virginia Club '20; Church Usher '21; Chapel Monitor '21.

John retains a trace of Italian warmth and impulsiveness in his make-up. He is a jolly companion on all occasions. One has faint recollections of an attachment formed for a "divinity" away back in '18. Has one not said that he possesses the qualities of loyalty and persistency? Of course he does, for the supreme test lies in the fact that the bright eyes of another have never had the slightest effect upon him. His philosophy of life is: "Leave dignity to old age and care to those who have no better sense than to look for it."

Senior Class

RALPH OTIS SMITH

A.B., M.A.

KEMP'S MILL, NORTH CAROLINA

*"In arguing too the parson owned his skill,

Philologist; Philologist Entertainment '17; Varsity Track '19-'20; Secretary Ministerial Association '21; Maroon and Gold Staff '21; Captain Track Team '21; Class Debater '21; President College Band '22; Intercollegiate Debater '22.

"The gentleman of the opposition," as he is sometimes called, hails from Randolph County, the county that has the reputation of contributing some noble sons to Elon. "R. O." is no exception. He is a preacher, but is contemplating entering law and politics. His flow of oratory, which has brought honors to him during his college course, will serve him well in his chosen profession. Success to you, old scout.

KATE E. WHEELER

"Follow, follow, follow the gleam."

Psophellian; Beta Omicron Beta; Class Poet '21; Assistant Physical Culture Director '21; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet '21; Certificate in Piano '21; Pianist Psophellian Entertainment '21; Delegate to Y. W. C. Kate holds this as her ideal, having found it at her home—Blue Ridge. Here's to you, the best president Y. W. has ever had. With no reflections whatever on '23, we are wondering what Y. W. will be without you next year, having given your very best to it. Again, Kate, here is to you!

CLAUDE LEVI WALKER

"Go put your creed into your deed Nor speak with double tongue."

Philologist; Kappa Psi Nu; Student Senate '20; Marshal Philologist Entertainment '20; Maroon and Gold Staff '21; Philologist Chief Commencement Marshal '21; Vice-President Student Senate '22; Philologist Entertainment '22.

Take a tall fellow—very tall—a frank, outspoken fellow, steady and reliable, and you have the well-known "Slats." As a waiter in the dining hall for four years "Slats" has won a reputation that will live as long as the memory of him. "Slats" will study surgery after leaving college. Much success to you, old man. You have all the qualities necessary to make you what your friends expect you to become.

HENRY EUGENE WHITE

A.B.

MIDDLEBURG, NORTH CAROLINA

"The ladies—heaven bless them!"

Chio; Sigma Phi Beta; Glee Club '20; Class Basketball '18-'19-'20-'21; Varsity Football '19-'20-'21; Chio Entertainment '18-'20-'21-'22; Class Debater '20; President Varsity Warren County Club '20; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet '20; Treasurer Student Senate '20; Student Senate '21; Maroon and Gold Staff '21; Treasurer Eastern Carolina Club '20; "E" Men's Club.

Some say of "H. E." that he is a ladies' man. Others of us say he is just a favorite because of his gallantry and attractiveness. Such things are thrust upon some people, you know. On the gridiron he wins the applause of all—men and women alike. Hence "H. E." is an all-round man and a favorite with the fair sex on the campus, on the athletic field and during calling hours—at G. C. W.

History of the Class of '22

PAGES FROM THE CLASS DIARY

FRESHMAN

SEPTEMBER 19, 1918. At last school opens. We freshmen have thought that the time would never come, for the opening was postponed two weeks. We arrived two or three days ago, for freshmen feel they must "get there in plenty of time." The sophs are pretty decent about showing us around; they seem to enjoy it very much.

SEPTEMBER 20. Matriculate, buy books and spend all of dad's check.

SEPTEMBER 21. Examine the tower, tank and look one another over.

SEPTEMBER 23. The annual faculty reception. Everyone meets everyone else.

SEPTEMBER 24. Johnny and Corbitt "socialize" for the first time.

SEPTEMBER 25. The Freshman Class is responsible for a large part of the S. A. T. C. The girls look on by peeping surreptitiously from behind trees, curtains and other objects.

SEPTEMBER 30. Every freshman on the Hill is suffering from a heart-breaking attack of homesickness or "flu"—many of both. What a woeful time!

OCTOBER 1. (Sunday.) Johnny and Corbitt "socialize" again.

NOVEMBER 1. The spirit of '22 comes into existence in the form of an organized class—a hundred and twenty-five members. Mallison is elected president and Sula Patterson secretary. "Jake" designs the seal, the class selects the motto of "Be Prepared," and chooses its colors of maroon and gray.

NOVEMBER 27. (Thanksgiving Day.) Slat Walker and Mary Miller have their first dates at Elon—and together.

NOVEMBER 28. Lost the inter-class basketball championship.

DECEMBER 11. The S. A. T. C. reception. Our boys received their honorable discharges, as the war is over and their services are not needed. A jolly good time in the dining room this night.

DECEMBER 13. Johnny elected captain of basketball for the year '18-'19.

DECEMBER 20, 21, 23. Leave for home for the Christmas holidays.

JANUARY 5, 1919. Back again. A great many of our S. A. T. C. boys have not returned.

JANUARY 7. The class reorganizes. Castevens is elected president; Mallison did not return.

MARCH 3. Freshman stunt—a picture gallery. Very, very funny.

MARCH 23. Freshman-Sophomore debate. Lula Cannon. Jake Thomas and Horton Doughton debate for the class. The sophs win. Lula says "Gee whiz!"

APRIL 16. Eunice Rich wins the Pspihelian essayist medal.

MAY 21. The end of a short year. Off for the vacation.

SOPHOMORE

SEPTEMBER 10. Sophs! Oh joy! Isn't the world a pleasant place? And isn't knowledge an easy thing to gain? This year Rhodes Moffitt is president, Mag Corbitt secretary.

SEPTEMBER 13. The annual faculty reception, but this doesn't interest us half as much as the new freshmen.

SEPTEMBER 14. Johnny and Corbitt still "socializing."

NOVEMBER 1. Mid-semester reports sent out. No inflation in the soph dignity is apparent; however, a few punctures are painfully noticeable.

NOVEMBER 25. Lost the inter-class basketball championship.

DECEMBER 22. Christmas—and home.

JANUARY 7, 1920. Return to school with renewed and increased soph dignity.

FEBRUARY 26. Soph stunt. First appearance of the "Red Calf She-Talker."

MARCH 24. Win the inter-class track championship from the juniors by one-half a point. Johnny, Jake, Garvey and R. O. star.

MARCH 27. Freshman-Sophomore debate. Eunice Rich, Jake Thomas and Henry White win that old debate. Good scouts!

MARCH 27. (Midnight.) A beautiful '22 painted on the tank by Jake and his assistants.

MARCH 30. A sprightly fight staged on the tank. What with buckets of paint descending and lively scuffling on the part of the participants on their aerial perch, it was a most interesting and "sceery" sight. Suffice it to say '22 stayed on that tank that day and for many a day thereafter.

APRIL 2. H. G. Self wins the Philologian oratorical medal.

MAY 10. R. O. Smith elected captain of the varsity track team; N. G. Newman elected captain of the varsity tennis team, '20-'21.

MAY 16. College closes for the vacation. Not a thing has happened to puncture permanently the sophomore dignity. It has been a glorious year.

JUNIOR

SEPTEMBER 1. Every trace of our sophomore breeziness is gone; we are juniors now. Johnny Johnson is president and Bessie Holmes is secretary for this term.

SEPTEMBER 5. Johnny and Corbitt still "socializing."

NOVEMBER 24. Junior-Senior debate. H. G. Self and R. O. Smith win a brilliant victory for old '22.

NOVEMBER 30. Johnny elected captain of the varsity football team for '21-'22.

DECEMBER 2. Lost the basketball championship to the sophomores.

DECEMBER 22. Off for home.

JANUARY 5, 1921. Christmas holidays over.

FEBRUARY 11. Corbitt, "Ken" and Eunice take leading parts in Byron W. King's production of Merchant of Venice.

MARCH 10. Junior-Senior reception. The seniors say they have a mighty good time.

MARCH 15. Kate Wheeler elected president of Y. W. C. A.

MARCH 16. Junior stunt. Second appearance of the "Red Calf She-Talker."

APRIL 26. Lost the track championship.

APRIL 27. H. G. Self represents the college in the State Peace Contest.

APRIL 27. Mary Miller wins the Psiphelian essayist medal.

APRIL 29. R. O. Smith wins the Philologian oratorical medal.

MAY 4. Eula Mae Massey and Margie Perry give their certificate recital in voice.

MAY 23. H. G. Self wins the Philologian commencement oratorical medal; R. S. Rainey wins the Clio oratorical medal.

MAY 23. Receive the senior "mantle" today. SENIORS! Can it be? Somehow it gives a fellow a queer, sad little feeling to think of assuming this title. It has all been so jolly. Come on, classmates, let's make the coming session the best of them all. Still—we can't keep from turning back just a wee bit.

SENIOR

SEPTEMBER 7, 1921. Two-Two-Twenty-Two! Two-Two-Twenty-Two! Two-Two-Twenty-Two! Seniors! Seniors! Seniors! Watson Garrison is our president, Nat Newman our secretary.

SEPTEMBER 10. We assist the faculty with their reception by decorating for them, making the punch and serving it.

SEPTEMBER 11. Corbitt and Johnny still "socializing."

SEPTEMBER 12. W. E. Moon elected president of Religious Activities Organization.

OCTOBER 16. (Sunday.) Corbitt and Johnny do not "socialize." "What? What?"

OCTOBER 23. (Sunday.) Corbitt and Johnny do "socialize." Well for goodness sakes!

OCTOBER 30. Lora Foust elected president of the Ophelia Dramatic Club.

NOVEMBER 10. Senior stunt—the "Red Calf She-Talker" makes its last appearance at Elon. Maggie Irby and Bessie Holmes star in an impromptu number.

NOVEMBER 23. Mary Miller, R. S. Rainey (that bald-headed fellow with the side-burns), and J. D. Messick represent the class in the Junior-Senior debate. They lose!

DECEMBER 6. Lose the interclass basketball game to the Juniors. Johnny, Slats, Watson, C. P., Self, H. E., Hook, Banks—you played a good game! We are proud of you!

DECEMBER 9. H. G. Self and R. S. Rainey among those chosen to represent the college in an intercollegiate debate.

DECEMBER 14. Receive the senior rings.

DECEMBER 22. Christmas holidays.

Class Prophecy

ST. PETER and the inmates of the Celestial Region were fast going to seed, and to complete the misery the angels were singing out of tune. Suddenly, a loud blast of the trumpet awakened St. Peter. He looked up and saw Michael, the archangel, standing before him, who shouted, "A soul in sight and mounting fast." "Oho!" yawned St. Peter, "we shall have occupation now." The soul was ushered in the pearly gates and stood before St. Peter.

"Mortal man, what say'st thou for thyself?" asked St. Peter. The newcomer trembled and bowed.

"Sir," said he, "I have just been assisted gently but firmly off the terrestrial planet, and here I am. My name, sir, is Oscar Banks Garmon. I, on the earth, was a great doctor, to my way of thinking, but as I ushered so many souls into heaven they have sent me in their footsteps. Be kind, St. Peter."

Again Michael's trumpet heralded the approach of two other mortals, who soon stood before St. Peter. These proved to be Maggie Irby and Lora Foust. Banks forgot about St. Peter and his celestial regions in greeting them.

"Why Banks," exclaimed Maggie, "I never expected to meet you here."

"Aw, come off, Maggie!" exclaimed Banks, "You know I was too good for the earth. Say, how about scaring up an old class reunion. Let us send some heralds to earth to hurry up the members of old '22 and let's get together again. What say? Let's go!"

After much coaxing St. Peter agreed and sent down for the others.

The first to come running in through the pearly gates was N. G. Newman, secretary of the class. Soon business began to pick up and St. Peter awoke to the fact that many famous personages were crossing his doorstep that day. "N. G." was asked to call the roll and recite the great and noble deeds of those present. About half the class were there, so he began.

"Step forward as I call your names. R. O. Smith. This gentleman before you has attained great fame as the editor of a revised edition of Shakespeare. He objected seriously to some passages in which the lover was entirely too fortunate in winning his lady-love. He said it was not true to life, for he knew from actual experience.

"Next, I. O. Hauser. This man made a brilliant record as editor of the Greensboro Daily News. The paper became so famous under his editorship that such publications as the N. Y. Times were placed out of commission entirely.

"H. N. Peel. This gentleman made a name for himself in light opera, as a singer. His favorite selection was 'Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground.' Fame was thrust upon this man.

"Next, M. W. Hook. This man has used his college training to great advantage as a conductor on Henry Ford's railroad. He allowed all the pretty girls to ride free of charge. His train was very popular."

In walked "Slat's" Walker and Watson Garrison. They had a great deal of trouble getting through the pearly gates. Some friends used their influence, so St. Peter grudgingly gave his consent.

"Step forward, gentlemen," called "N. G." "we want to look upon you again. These two bosom companions have reached the pinnacles of fame through impersonating Mutt and Jeff. You have the pleasure of gazing upon two world-famous comedians—the heroes who have braved everything to make Mutt and Jeff classical figures.

"Come forward, Bessie Holmes. This good, steady classmate of ours has been a famous reader. After several months of training at King's School of Oratory she attained fame throughout the sunny Southland by her beautiful rendition of 'Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight.'

"H. E. White," called "N. G.," "you are welcome. It gives me the greatest pleasure to recite this man's noble deeds. He was known throughout the world as the maker of the famous medicine 'Kotoch,' which was guaranteed to make mustaches grow overnight."

At this point in strolled a demure little woman stirring with a wooden spoon a mixture in a blue bowl. "Deloris Morrow," said "N. G.," "we have been waiting for you. All of you know of the vast success of this little woman in the realm of domestic science. She is still trying to prove, through food analysis, that Harper's mixture does not cause dyspepsia. So far her attempts have failed."

"Maude Kendrick," said "N. G.," "was a famous aesthetic dancer as a result of her training and experience at Elon. She is still 'Ken' in spite of the fact that upon the light, fantastic toe she danced upon the hearts of men."

"Lora Foust, come forward. This worthy lady before you was principal for years of the Elon Practice School. Pragmatism and problematic situations have been her study for years."

At this point in romped a little girl playing basketball.

"Stand still, will you, Boodie Perry," cried "N. G.," "while I relate your successes. 'Boodie' was the baby of the Class of '22. She still has the doll she kept during her college career. She made a great success of her kindergarten teaching in Siler City."

Suddenly Michael's trumpet shook the firmaments of heaven. For why should it not, when J. J. Simiele strolled through the pearly gates?

"J. J. Simiele," announced "N. G.," "was a Wall Street broker of fame. Out of the beneficence of his heart he gave the town of Elon the money necessary to lay cement walks along the famous boulevard, 'Possum Avenue,' for the benefit of the college students who do so much visiting in town."

"Mary M. Miller," announced "N. G.," "This lady did a noble work on earth. She was famous as a platform orator, her subject being 'Easy Ways to Matrimony.'"

Arm in arm two gentlemen of imposing appearance strolled through the gates. "Rainey and Clem, two attorneys who should have been famous," explained our man, "if they had had a hundred years more on the earth."

"Come forth, Nannie D. Reitzel," called "N. G.," "Your trials and tribulations are over. This poor child has spent her life trying to learn plane geometry. Close your book at last, for you will never need it here."

A quiet little woman here entered. "This lady," said "N. G.," "never laughed in the world. She never said anything funny. It is Sula Patterson, the woman who tried as hard for her degree M.R.S. as she did for her A.B."

A man of forceful look appeared. "This gentleman," said "N. G.," "is our good classmate, H. G. Self. His oration on the 'Will of Woman' is as well known and liked as the famous 'Acres of Diamonds.' This silver-tongued orator was the wonder of his age."

"Bess Nicholson and Florine Farmer," announced Michael.

"Bess," said "N. G.," "you will notice has bobbed her hair. She applied for a position in the Mebane High School. As only bobbed-hair teachers were allowed there she had to cut off her curls."

"Florine," continued our speaker, "advertised for a husband after leaving school. So many applicants appeared that she formed a matrimonial bureau and spent the remainder of her life furnishing her girl friends with husbands."

"Maggie Irby," announced "N. G.," "This famous lady was an M.D. She made a specialty of cases of chickenpox."

"This," said "N. G.," "is Rhodes Moffitt, who was president and owner of the Asheboro Wheelbarrow Company. He hoped to establish a shovel factory, but life was too short."

"Mr. Cheek," was announced. "This gentleman was so long finishing college that he forgot almost all he knew, so, upon completing his course he became a professional baseball player and forgot the remainder of it."

"Welcome," called our speaker. "Here is a noble woman who performed a beautiful task on the earth. She gave herself in service for others as she did in college. It is our beloved Kate Wheeler."

Through the pearly gates a tiny figure came running. Hair curlers and three fashion books trailed through space behind her. "Welcome, Eunice Rich," exclaimed "N. G.," "you have made a name for yourself upon the stage of life as a co-missionary in 'fer-away' Africa."

C. P. Farmer here arrived on the scene of action. "This gentleman," said our speaker, "has filled well his position, that of pilot on a boat plying between Norfolk and Richmond."

A lady and gentleman at this point appeared, singing "Long, Long Ago." "J. D. Messick and Marjorie Perry," exclaimed "N. G.," "we welcome you. These two have sung in concert for many years. They are remembered in every small town from the Great Lakes to Florida."

"Tell us, 'N. G.," begged several, "what you did on earth."

"What I did? Well, I became a dentist and invented a new device for holding false teeth in the mouth. The famous Newman fastener is in the mouth of millions."

"Hello, Dave," said "N. G.," "This fellow never liked the ladies. They pursued him so he ran off to the mountains and lived the life of a hermit and lonely bachelor on Grandfather's Mountain."

Two men walked in. "One of these gentlemen," said "N. G.," "was dean of Elon College, W. E. Moon. The second gentleman is S. R. Murray. He conducted a famous beauty parlor in Burlington, North Carolina. His valuable past experience made him an expert in the trade."

"Here come Johnny and Corbitt," exclaimed one. "Yes," said "N. G.," "it was thought at one time that they would marry, but Johnny became coach at Guilford and Margaret started a hair-dressing establishment at Sunbury. Johnny went down every week to have his hair curled and Margaret refused to marry him because she would lose too good a customer." At this point the great gates closed.

A short while later a timid knocking was heard outside. St. Peter peeped out.

"St. Peter, has the last bell rung yet?" called a voice. "Please pardon me. I really did not mean to be late in getting to heaven as I was everywhere on earth."

"Come in, Eula May Massey," said St. Peter. "She married a widower with five children; hence, this time, we excuse her for being late."

Silence reigned over heaven, and all retired for rest until the morrow, for the Class of '22 "were all met."

Class Poem

Amidst a world of war and strife,
We here began our college life,
Training to help establish peace
And do our bit when war should cease.
So, then, in this uncertain state
We set our motto to grow great;
To "Be Prepared."

Although our pathway was uphill,
We've striven well our place to fill,
To make a name for Twenty-Two,
By things that we would say and do,
And with our many victories won,
We had not finished, but begun
To "Be Prepared."

Our college life we've labored through,
Following the gleam of Twenty-Two;
With love for college-mate and friend,
And eager to them a hand to lend,
With reverence for these halls so dear,
For teachers who have helped us near
To "Be Prepared."

Our college days to an end have come,
In the wide, wide world our task begun,
With fear and hope the future we face;
With thankfulness the past we trace,
And view the happy friendships there
Which helped in joy and in despair
To "Be Prepared."

As from our college days we part,
A prayer for you is in our heart.
We hope the gleam for each of you
Shall be your star the great world through.
Then bravely dare to say and do
Things, helping others as Twenty-Two,
To "Be Prepared."

Junior Class History

HE Class of '23 occupies a very proud position in the history of this institution. It has suffered the vicissitudes and borne the hardships, enjoyed the advantages and reaped the benefits of that period which has meant more to Elon College than any other period of equal duration. During our short stay, the college and its life has been practically revolutionized.

It is only natural that in this time of stress that some of those on the pilgrimage with us should be missing when the final roll is called. The saddest part of the history of our class lies in the list of the names of its members after which must be written the symbol "Ex '23." Others, however, have come to fill these vacant places. Some have returned to school after years of absence; some have risen from the lower classes, but all have caught the old spirit and have been welded into one homogeneous whole by the fires of friend and fellowship.

The athletic record of '23 during our stay in college is worthy of note. In the last two years we have won the class championship in basketball and baseball. In the past two years the Class of '23 has furnished a captain for each of the three teams—football, basketball and baseball.

Furthermore, the Class of '23 has given to football Perry, Stoner, Fix, Marlette and Underwood; to basketball Fix, Perry and Andrews, and to baseball Marlette, Underwood, Perry, Andrews and Stoner.

We have also been active in the literary societies and social clubs. We have been strong supporters of the college publications, and loud rooters at all athletic games. This is especially true of the girls of our class.

We still have before us our senior year, and if we do as well our last year as we have done the first three, we will go down in college history as a truly remarkable class.

Rally 'Round the Standard

"DON MAX"

In the heart of Carolina,
Where grows the long-leaf pine,
There is a pretty little spot,
And I feel that it is mine.
There is something that is calling,
Calling softly unto me,
And I know it's you, dear Elon,
And I'm coming back to thee.

Yes, we'll all go back to Elon
And we'll rally 'round once more,
Rally 'round her standard,
As we rallied heretofore,
And we'll sing a song of praises
To her sons and daughters bold,
As we rally 'round the standard
Underneath Maroon and Gold.

When you're far from Carolina,
Far from the folks at home,
Your thoughts turn back to her,
No matter where you roam,
And you'll all come back to Elon
Some distant future day,
And as they rally 'round the standard
You'll surely hear them say—

Yes, we'll all go back to Elon,
And we'll rally 'round once more,
Rally 'round her standard,
As we rallied heretofore;
And we'll sing a song of praises
To her sons and daughters bold,
As we rally 'round the standard,
Underneath Maroon and Gold.

Sophomore Class History

NOTHER year has rolled around since we first met. Our class has decreased somewhat in number, but there are quite enough to carry out what tradition has long since assigned to our care. In other words, to acquaint the freshmen with their new environment. According to psychology, environment has a great deal of influence on the life of a person. To this we heartily agree; and we think that perhaps another class will agree also—the Freshman Class. At any rate, we endeavored to acquaint them with their new surroundings, taking care not to leave any of them out. We know for ourselves what a keen disappointment would have been ours had we been left out. Therefore, we think that we have discharged our duties in this matter faithfully and, we believe, successfully.

It is true that we never made such an enviable record last year, losing most of the contests in which we engaged. The debate was the most interesting feature of the year. We lost here also, but not until we had put up a hard fight.

There is no such thing, however, as downing the good old Class of '24. We are bound together with bonds of love and fellowship that will not be broken by a mere jar. We have never failed to back our boys with plenty of "pep" in all athletic contests. Although we have lost here, we are not cast down. It is just as much an indication of greatness to take defeat without complaining as it is to glory in victory.

And so with these thoughts in mind and with two long years before us in which to better our records, we redouble our efforts, believing fully that we possess the real power necessary to a successful college career. Always we strive to do our best that will fit us to cope with the problems that will confront us in later years. And we are doing our best to make good our motto—"It is better to gleam than to blaze."

Sophomore Class Poem

Steadily gleam the lamps we bear,
Lighting the way we would explore;
Never a blaze that soon is not
Leaving the darkness deep as before.

Like as the gleaming lamps we bear,
Like as that gleam from an open door,
Welcoming travelers from afar,
So stands the Class of Twenty-Four.

Under our banner of green and gold,
True to our standards forever more,
Standing for growth and loyalty,
Pure as the colors that we adore.

Plain as the daisy we choose to wear,
Gathered together from every shore,
Blended to form our beloved class,
Bringing earth's best to Twenty-Four.

FRESHMAN CLASS

Freshman Class History

THE greater part of our class arrived at Elon September sixth, nineteen hundred and twenty-one. We felt that we were one of the wisest classes that has ever been here, having already been informed concerning the reception awaiting us by the sophomores and the money that would be necessary for radiator fees. The reception was indeed one of the most cordial. Although we got acquainted at the faculty reception, we did not feel perfectly at home until after the greeting by the sophs. Soon work actually began, and we had the opportunity to demonstrate our ability as students. But our ability was not altogether confined to literary lines, a fact which has been shown by our yelling at the football games, and the part we have taken in other college activities.

The class was organized November first. Professor Paul S. Kennett was elected sponsor, and John Smith became the president of this remarkable group. The only real crime the class has committed was the complete defeat of the sophomore basketball team as payment for the kindness they have shown us from the beginning. We feel, however, that we have been forgiven for this offense, and with the good will of the whole school, the deepest concern of all the faculty and our own better judgment to lead onward, we are expecting to make a good record during our stay at Elon.

Freshman Class Poem

For years we've tried to gain this height,
And now we're proud that we can say,
"At last we have a perfect right
To that new name we claim today."
"The Class of Twenty-five"—this name,
Beneath Elon's Maroon and Gold,
We'll try to win our road to fame,
Strong characters we'll try to mould—
This Class of Five and Twenty.

Freshman year is a foundation—
Elon's traditions true, we learn,
Start the road to graduation,
And may we never backward turn;
So as we step inside the gate
That leads us into Learning's courts,
We now resolve that we'll be great
In any work or any sports—
This Class of Five and Twenty.

To brown and gold, our colors true,
We'll ever our allegiance pay;
The little brown-eyed Susan, too,
Will make us think along life's way,
We'll think of happy days we've spent
With dear old comrades—girls and boys—
When to and fro we gayly went
And didn't realize our joys—
In the Class of Five and Twenty.

Then, Onward! Onward! we will press,
And when our work on earth is done,
If any one our deeds shall bless,
We'll know to whom the praise belongs;
To One above is due all praise—
All we had, to us, He gave,
To Him our voices we shall raise,
And ask that God at last may save
The Class of Five and Twenty.

COACH F. B. CORBOY

This year Coach Corboy continued the upward progress of athletics. So far this year he has put out two exceptionally good teams, taking everything into consideration. The football team was far beyond that of last season, the same being true with respect to basketball. We feel sure that the same progress will be made in baseball. Coach has won the confidence of every student here. The athletes have realized ever since he has been director of athletics that he is never satisfied with anything other than the very best, both from the individual and the team. Give Coach the material and he will develop a winning team.

CAPTAIN E. S. JOHNSON, Halfback

"Johnnie," captain of the Christian eleven, was one of the hardest fighters on the team. "Johnnie" has made an enviable record as an athlete. He is a four-letter man, and deserves the honor that has been bestowed upon him. We regret that this is his last year on the gridiron. He has had his Alma Mater ever at heart, giving to her nothing other than his best. It's hard to let you go, "Johnnie."

CAPTAIN-ELECT J. S. CAMERON, Guard

"Jimmie" comes to us from Kiski Preparatory, Saltsburg, Pa., which is the leading preparatory school of that state. He seldom wore a helmet, but nevertheless when he was called upon to open up a hole he made it. Taking out men, breaking up plays, and tackling proved to be his hobby. We feel sure that Captain Jim will lead the Maroon and Gold eleven to victory in the coming season.

L. J. PERRY, Quarterback

"Happy" made the team an intelligent general. One thing about him is that he was always able to keep his opponents guessing. When it comes to line-plunging, look out! he's the stuff. He was a consistent ground-gainer. We regret that only one year remains for him to trouble Trinity and Guilford. We feel sure that next year his generalship will lead Elon's fighters to success.

* * *

ELON COLLEGE, October 1.—Lenoir lost to Elon this afternoon to the tune of 39 to 0. Lenoir was unable to make a first down against the strong Elon line, while the Elon gridiron machine marched down the field for good gains at every snap of the ball.—Greensboro Daily News.

JOE NEWMAN, Halfback

Although "Noble" never heard the signals, he always got them and took great delight in carrying them out, especially when he was to make a drive through the line. He always played hard and watched for the unexpected. He has made an enviable record on the gridiron. Elon will miss him next year.

H. E. WHITE, Tackle

Henry was one of our brilliant fighters. He isn't unusually large, but has the fame of being able to open up holes large enough to drive a hay-rake through. Perhaps his strength lay in his mustache, for his tackles were of the knockout type. Watching the movements of his opponents with the cunningness of a hawk, he broke up play after play behind the line. Too bad it's your last year, Henry. Your place will be hard to fill.

J. M. FIX, JR., Backfield

We are glad that there were never any speed cops near when Ghee started around ends. This old boy took great delight in side-stepping and intercepting forward passes. Next year we feel sure he will continue his good work and add further laurels to those already gained in the gridiron sport.

G. A. KIRKLAND, Guard

"Kirk" came to us from Durham High School. He is a hard fighter and has given Elon his best. In the Trinity game he did stellar playing. Next year will find him back on the gridiron. By the time he reaches his senior year we predict that he will be a big man in Carolina athletics.

* * *

SPARTANBURG, S. C., October 15.—Elon College lost to Wofford this afternoon, 20 to 7, although the Tar Heels came back in the second half and played the Terriers to a standstill.—Raleigh News and Observer.

W. G. STONER, Center

No man on the team was more dependable than "Bill." Quite frequently he was called upon to play halfback, where he was a good defensive man. When called upon to play center he was a real live wire, watching every play and usually making the tackle. "Bill" has another year to fight for Alma Mater.

F. J. ALLSTON, Center

Never was more "pep" put into one man. Frank always had the fighting spirit. This fighter, though a freshman, is a real football player. His greatest delight was to make all-state centers look like new ones at the game. Having seen Frank play this season, we understand why Westinghouse Highs won the championship of Pennsylvania in 1921. He has three more years to fight for the Maroon and Gold banner.

D. S. PERRY, End

Sam was only a freshman without any football experience, but the first week out he made for himself a position on the team, which he held throughout the season. Speaking of completing forward passes, he was there with the goods. He has plenty of speed and handles the pigskin well. With three years to play, we are looking for big things from him.

JOHN SMITH, Tackle

John is a real fighter when it comes to football. Never lacking in "pep" and constantly using his original war-whoop, "Go! Happy! Go!" he put all he had into the game. With the coming years we feel sure he will be an increasing stay in the Elon line-up.

* * *

DURHAM, October 29.—Elon upset all dope here this afternoon and drew Trinity out to a scoreless tie. L. J. Perry, in the backfield, was Elon's right-hand man. He ran the team and did most of the passing. Supporting him in the backfield was Captain Johnson. In the line John Smith won honors at right tackle.—Raleigh News and Observer.

J. M. McADAMS, Backfield

This was Mark's first year of football, but he played like an old veteran. No, he isn't a green one; he's a wide-awake football man. He has two more years before him, and we feel sure that he will make a splendid record.

JOHN WHITESSELL, Tackle

This was the first year he has tried his hand at football, but he proved to be a valuable man. He played in the first game and took part in every game on the schedule. Next year will find John back on the gridiron doing stellar playing.

HAL CLARK, End

Coming from the rabbit metropolis, Chatham County, Hal is famed for his speed, going down on punts and nailing 'em in their tracks. How about those long passes? Somehow we couldn't tell how he managed to pull them out of the elements. The Trinity team is well aware of the fact that he breaks up plays behind the line. With one more year's experience, Hal should be a brilliant star.

G. D. UNDERWOOD, Backfield

Two years George has been playing with Elon's eleven. Though somewhat tender-looking, he has been able to make his opponents feel the effects of his hardihood. With two years to play, we feel sure that he will put out some real stuff on the gridiron.

* * *

HAMPDEN SIDNEY, Va., November 5.—In a hard and bitterly contested game Hampden Sidney triumphed over Elon by the close score of 7 to 0.—Virginian-Pilot.

C. P. FLYNN, End

Though a freshman, Flynn proved that he could play football. He was a valuable man to the team and it owes much of its success to his consistent work either in practice or in the game. We predict a stellar future for him.

L. E. FESMIRE, Guard

"Foots" had an advantage over most men, as he was able to stop up holes with his feet that in most instances took a good-sized man. He was a valuable asset to the team, for he was a dependable lineman. With two more years to play, great things are to be expected from him.

C. F. FARLEY, Backfield

"Snag" hails from High Point. This lad, though small in stature, did not let this hinder him from making his opponents realize his presence. "Snag" has three years yet to go. Say, "Runt, let 'em have it next year."

O. B. GORMAN, Backfield

He went into the game with a will and played with a push that is characteristic of him on or off the field. His greatest fame was won with the "Bear Cats." With these wild fellows he starred. However, to him should be credited his full share of honor with the varsity squad.

* * *

ELON COLLEGE, November 24.—In a game of thrills Elon defeated Guilford in the Thanksgiving game by one touchdown.—Greensboro Daily News.

Basketball Review, Season 1922

CAPTAIN PERRY

To say that the season was a complete success would be far from right, but to say that it was a failure would be an unpardonable mistake. It is true that our team did not win all the games on the schedule, but they did a fine bit of work in their home state. The trip to Virginia was not one of success. Brown, our fast center, was injured in the first game of the trip and was unable to accompany the team on the remainder of the invasion.

But back in old Carolina the Maroon and Gold quintet began its success by defeating Lenoir. The team made an even split with North Carolina State, Wake Forest, Davidson, and Guilford. The climax of the season was reached when our team won the only game scheduled with Trinity on the auditorium floor at Raleigh. Elbn remained in the race for the state championship until defeated by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. The team's success on the home floor was exceedingly satisfactory, losing only one game, which was lost to Wake Forest by the small margin of two points.

Much of the success of the team this season was due to the good teamwork and the generalship of Captain Perry, who proved to be a real leader for his team. Perry's hobby was shooting foul goals, and in the last game of the season he caged seven out of eight.

Fix proved to be at his old tricks when it came to whirling the old ball through from the field. He also did splendid floor work. Newman did stellar floor work, and seemed to have a sleight-o'-hand in caging field goals. Though this was Brown's first year with the Maroon and Gold, he did excellent work at center and proved efficient in tossing them through from the field. McAdams, as stationary guard, proved without a doubt that he was superior to many of the state's best forwards, keeping his man always under cover. Marlette, Walker, S. Perry, Flynn, and Barker did great work when called into the game as substitutes.

1922 Baseball Prospectus

CAPTAIN NEWMAN

Newman, our star first baseman, who was elected captain, is expecting to have a winning team this year. Owing to the fact that last year robbed us of only three of our last year's varsity team, and with the new material that has been added, there is plenty of grounds for our belief.

With Perry, Barker, and Fogleman on the pitching staff, Underwood behind the bat, Captain Newman on first, some new men to take Johnson's place on second, Stoner and Cheek racing for third, Marlette back on short, and Clark and Smith in the outfield, along with the new material, there is no reason why this season should not be the best Elon has known for many a year.

There are several other men who did some good work for the team last year and are expected to be found as members of the team this year. Among this number are Andrews as pitcher, Reed and Purcell as catchers, and Braxton and Self in the outfield.

Coach Corboy is not the type of man that makes flowery statements about his teams, but he states that, with consistent work and daily practice, he is confident that this will be a winning season for Elon.

The schedule for the season follows:

- March 27—Lenoir College at Elon.
- March 28—Erskine College at Elon.
- March 29—Furman University at Elon.
- March 31—Wake Forest at Wake Forest.
- April 1—North Carolina State at Raleigh.
- April 6—Roanoke College at Elon.

- April 27—Furman University at Greenville, S. C.
- April 28—Presbyterian College at Clinton, S. C.

On the left side, there are stylized illustrations of clusters of grapes and several small, bell-shaped fruits hanging from thin stems. The title 'Book V' is written in a large, bold, serif font, with the 'B' being particularly large and ornate, featuring a decorative flourish.

Oh dear! please dont be too rough with him now

It's not what faces a warrior but what backs him

There's nought but care on ev'ry han',
In every hour that passes, O:
What signifies the life o' man,
An' 'twere na for the lasses, O?

* * * * *

For you sae douce, ye sneer at this;
Ye're nought but senseless asses, O:
The wisest man the warl' e'er saw,
He dearly loved the lasses, O.

Auld Nature swears, the lovely dears
Her noblest work she classes, O:
Her 'prentice han' she tried on man,
An' then she made the lasses, O.

Green grow the rashes, O;
Green grow the rashes, O;
The sweetest hours that e'er I spend
Are spent among the lasses, O.

exceptionally thrilling program ever heard in this historic hall. A special feature of the program was an oration by Sion M. Lynam, entitled, "Elon—Christian Character First and Always." This was without a doubt the greatest thing ever listened to by mortal man. If the cat could read the article in this paper, she, too, would no doubt sing a little song, "Oh, What Liars These Reporters Are."

FROM THE EDITORIAL PAGE

The following was gleaned from the editorial page of this innoctas-tic sheet:

"To admit that the members of the faculty have a right to open their mouths except in the class-room or in the privacy of their homes would be to deny the students of this institution their inalienable rights—rights which are enjoyed by the students of every forward-looking college which is on the map and up-to-date. It is beyond the comprehension of the best minds on the editorial staff of this paper how the insignificant, infinitesimal mind of the president of this college can bring itself to the point of advocating and preaching the doctrine that faculty members have a right to voice their sentiments on matters pertaining to the college. He actually believes they have a right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Oh! poor, deluded mortal."

"The Board of Trustees are even worse. We all know that they are a bunch of superannuated old fossils. What do they know about running a college? Students have lived under their irksome regulations long enough. We advocate electrocution for them, and as for the faculty we believe it would be safe to trust them in the care of some good insane asylum for the mentally nutty, etc."

GLIO'S MISREPRESENTATION

earth, and that Mars will go some if she beats it." Mercy on that reporter's soul!

While Rev. Clem was administering the oratorical anaesthetic to the judges, Punny Scholz doped out this scheme as a fuel-saving device.

The Reason

It happened at a temperance lecture. The lecturer was trying to impress upon his audience the harm in strong drink. He had been raving for about an hour:

"My friends, I will now bring to your consideration the way nature works in this matter. The beasts of the field do not partake of intoxicants. Now, if I had two buckets on this rostrum, one full of water and the other full of that vile mountain corn, and I brought a donkey onto the platform, which would he drink?"

"The water," came from a dozen throats.

"Of course," responded the lecturer, who had awaited a reply.

"Now, tell me, why would he choose the water?"

To which the bored voice of Mountain Woodie in the accent of his native hills replied: "Just because he's a jackass."

Sayings

Rastus Reed: "What are you washing the back of your neck for?"

Boob McNut: "I am going down to get a haircut, and I want to make sure the barber will tackle the job."

* * *

H. E.: "If the dean doesn't take back what he said this morning, I am going to leave college."

Socrates: "What did he say?"

H. E.: "He told me to leave college."

* * *

Dr. J. U. Newman: "Well, what can you tell me about Solomon?"

J. H. Dollar (Rev.-to-be): "I know that he had three hundred wives and eight hundred porcupines."

* * *

Messick: "You don't mind my singing, do you?"

Patrick: "Not at all; I used to live near a sawmill."

Jennie: "Oh, dear! Isn't that a cute little dawnkee?"

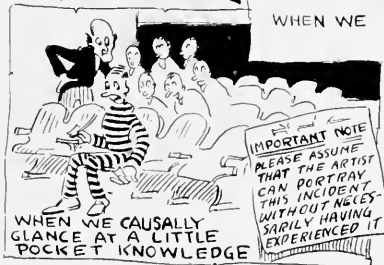

Freda: "Oh, say! Does Bray ever ask for a date now?"

in secret, but appearances indicate that a bill of this nature was passed.)

No. XXXCN, by Coun'ess Goff—
To allow girls the use of boys' half of campus. (Note: Faculty and Board of Trustees lobbied for this, but girls themselves defeated it on grounds that it provided too great an opportunity for spoon-ing during social hours.)

No. XXX, by Coun'ess Goff—To have all chaperons instantly hanged.
(Note: Not a dissenting vote.)

No. X$CK, by Coun'ess Whitt—To have the oil sandpapered from Dr. Harper's tongue in order that a student may get at least one word during a conference.
(Note: President Holmes vetoed the measure on the ground that it was useless cruelty since the doctor could and would chew slippery elm, which he frequently did in order to have a chance in discussions with his wife.)

No. XX&%X, by Coun'ess Farmer
(before her resignation)—To allow girls to wear skirts as short as they desire.
(Note: Bill was passed, it is presumed on present indications.)

No. XVI?V, by Coun'ess Cotten—
To prohibit girls bobbing their hair.
(Note: She was supported by farm bloc, which believes in plenty top dress-

a lack of confidence in cooties to wire them in.)

BILLS INTRODUCED IN THE STUDENT SENATE

No. 78, by Senator Woodie—To require chemistry students to confiscate as much  $C_2H_5OH$  as discretion permits, and to be generous with student senators. (Note: Defeated by Senator Bow-Legs on ground that it is already an unwritten law carefully observed by chemists.)

No. 99, by Senator "Country"—To cut down all trees on campus and plant it in cotton, corn and tobacco. (Note: Valiantly supported by farm bloc and passed.)

No. 57, by Senator Surratt—To have all squirrels on campus killed in order to save the nuts. (Note: Fix, Fesmire, Murray and others testified that if this bill were not passed their lives were in imminent danger from these rodents. Bill passed in order to save above-named nuts, including introducing senator.)

No. 8383j, by Senator Hanner—To allow faculty members access to all Buck-Three meetings and student escapades. (Note: Faculty pressure, led by Uncle Ned and Professor Bennie, caused the bill to be passed unanimously.)

No. 77i, by Senator Slatts—To grant a patent to Cheek for his instrument for carrying pocket notes in order that he might graduate. (Note: Defeated by arguments of Senator Norlina, who suggested that the honor system was surer and safer when properly used.)

No. 5732k, by Senator Barker—To have the cement walks removed from campus to make way for more mud. (Note: Good lobbying by faculty and Board of Trustees caused the bill to be passed.)

No. 789(%, by President Johnson—To require faculty members to be present at all student mass meetings. (Note: Bill defeated on recommendation of Dr. Lawrence, who said that the faculty did not wish to be exposed to conservatism, preferring rather to remain Bolshevistic.)

It Is an Elon Tradition

I.

To advertise all birthdays in order that friends may properly help the lucky one celebrate, and, in so far as possible, reduce the number of future birthdays to a minimum.

II.

To keep perfectly quiet at all athletic games in order not to disturb the players; but in case of a prayer service make all the noise humanly possible.

III.

To speak well of the dean of women, regardless of the fact that she is an imposter, put here for no other reason than that the Board of Trustees have a grouch against the students.

IV.

To refrain from all socializing in the library, regardless of the fact that this place was set aside for the purpose of social intercourse, and that the librarians feel hurt when one fails to flirt and make eyes at them.

V.

Never to laugh at a professor's joke, for in so doing one is liable to a reduction in his grade. Professors—especially Uncle Ned and Dr. Puck—tell jokes to illustrate points, and it so annoys them to have them laughed at that they "dock" you for boisterousness.

VI.

To boost athletics and knock all other activities and organizations, including the college. (Note: More truth than we usually speak.)

VII.

To have all articles for Maroon and Gold and PHIPSICLI handed in strictly on time. As a result, no editor or managing editor of a college publication has ever been heard to use profanity or to speak unkindly to subordinates.

VIII.

To speak in the highest terms of the service one gets at Elon, such as food at the dining hall, heat in the buildings, hot water for the showers, and cement walks.

IX.

To do all kissing publicly and in full view of the chaperons, as the girls are shy of the dark corners and, besides, love hates obscurity.

X.

To go in mourning when a professor is sick and misses a class. We must show proper respect for our beloved, and the best way to hide jubilation is under a coating of black.

When

When they change dishwashers at the club you can tell by the fingerprints on the plates.

When Dr. Puck misses a math class you can tell by the smiles on the faces of Hauser and Hook.

When Monday night rolls around you can tell by the fact that so many society members get sick.

When Socrates takes a shave you can tell by the yells he sends up, for his wife has to make him.

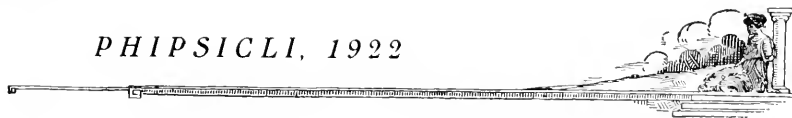

When Seba High has a date with Peggy Phillips you can tell by the little earthquakes they make when walking together. And—

When the PHIPSICLI comes out you can tell by the following expression: "It cost more than it's worth."

If—

If you think it is fun to be the humorous editor of the PHIPSICLI, you are mistaken. If you think said editor was on his job and did his duty, you are mistaken. If you think a single, solitary joke or near-joke in this humorous section is original with him, you are entirely mistaken. If you think someone else should have had the job, you are correct. GOSH DING YE, sit down!

Amen and women!

¶ More than ninety universities, colleges and schools of the South favored us with their Annual printing contracts for the year 1922.

¶ This phenomenal record is the natural result of the high quality of workmanship displayed in all our publications, coupled with the very complete service rendered the Staff.

¶ From the beginning to the end we are your counselor and adviser in the financing, collecting, and editing of your book.

¶ Surely if "Experience is the best teacher," as an old maxim says, then our service must be supreme. Decide right now to know more about our work and service. Simply write for our proposition.

"College Annual Headquarters"

A Last Word

A SIGH of relief comes over us as we come to this, our last word. Those who have had the experience know that it is no little task to publish a college annual. Ours has been no exception. At times we have felt that it was more than we could do, but we are at the end.

We wish we could present you with a perfect book; but, alas! "To err is human," and we are very human. We should be glad for it to please everyone, but not even the Bible pleases all, much less a book like this. Although we have endeavored to do our best under the circumstances, it has fallen far short of our ideals. Take it, kind reader, for what it is worth. We trust you will appreciate its good qualities, if such there be, and be gentle in your criticisms, remembering that if you had done the work it might not have pleased everybody even then.

We wish to express our gratitude to all who have contributed in any way to make our task lighter and the publication possible. We wish to make especial acknowledgments to Mr. C. M. Cannon, a former editor, on whose experience we have drawn in many perplexities, and to Mr. W. R. Thomas, familiarly known as "Jake," for his splendid assistance in the matter of cartooning. "Jake" was for two years a loyal member of our class, and although he saw fit to follow another path, his loyalty has remained true to '22.

THE STAFF.

THE END
